MEMOIRS

W. R. BYERLY

Rev. W. R. Byerly was born in Washington County, Tennessee, July 12, 1856, and died at his home in Baileyton, Tennessee, February 21, 1924. at the age of sixty-seven years, seven months and nine days.

He was married to Sallie E. Bayles on May 13, 1886, and to this union were born five children, four of whom are now living: Mrs. J. Carson Moore, Greeneville, Tennessee; Mrs. R. L. Brown, Covington, Kentucky; Miss Hazel Byerly, Baileyton, Tennessee; and Clarence Ketron Byerly, Chicago, Illinois. Agnes preceded him to "The Land of Rest" nine years ago.

He was admitted on trial in the Holston Conference in 1881 and served the following charges: Sneedville, Irwin, Van Hill, Rogersville, Elizabethton, Mountain City, Oakland, Greeneville, Parrottsville, Dandridge, Knoxville, Baileyton, Surgoinsville, Limestone, Kingsport, Thorn Hill, Rutledge, and Newport Circuit where he was at the time of his death. Brother Byerly was always cheerful and happy in his work, enthusiastic and untiring in his labors.

His sickness was of short duration, and realizing the end was near, he looked forward to its coming as his "crowning" day. Calling his wife and children to his bedside, he bade each a tender, heart rending farewell, made all arrangements for his funeral, and then went away.

His funeral was conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Baileyton, Tennessee, by his District Superintendent, assisted by the Rev. P. R. Broyles, and the body was laid to rest in Zion Cemetery, beneath a mound of flowers, a token of the high esteem with which his many friends held him.

The family has lost a loving husband and father, and the church a devoted and faithful worker and pastor. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the family and we can commend them only to Him who bears our sorrows and is acquainted with our grief.

BURTON M. MARTIN

Burton M. Martin was born in McMinn County, Tennessee, October 25, 1866. He was educated in Haysville College, Grant University, and Theological School, and was granted the degree of Doctor of Divinity by the University of Chattanooga, in the year 1913.

He was received on trial in the Holston Conference, 1894, elected to Deacon's Orders in 1896 and to Elder's Orders in 1898. On May 27, 1896, he was united in marriage to Miss Zona Haggard.

Dr. Martin was appointed to Pikeville, Highland Park, Rockwood, Maryville, Athens, Harriman District, Agent of the Preachers' Aid Society, Second Church Knoxville, and Centenary Area Secretary of the Chattanooga Area. He was elected a delegate to the General Conference in 1906 and was twice elected reserve delegate.

All of the pastorates record marked achievements in revivals or building enterprises. The outstanding monument of his building efforts is the beautiful church at Athens, Tennessee. This outstanding work required an indomitable will, unswerving faith, and skilled leadership.

As a District Superintendent, Dr. Martin showed himself to be a real executive, with a deep interest in all the work of his District. He carried the burdens of his pastors as though they were his own and his relation to his men was sympathetic and helpful. Some of the most heartfelt messages received by the bereaved family came from the men who served under him.

When the time came to secure a leader to raise fifty thousand dollars for the Preachers' Aid Society, Dr. Martin was assigned the task, and he was asked to achieve the results in three years. So faithfully did he undertake this new work that at the end of the year he was able to report the work done. He had secured subscriptions for fifty-five thousand dollars.

The real ability of Dr. Martin was brought out in his work as Area Secretary. He threw his whole being into the work, believing in the loyalty and faith of the workers of this Area. He traveled by day and by night, never thinking of sparing himself. To small and over-burdened groups he gave advice and delivered addresses as faithfully as he did for the largest assemblies. To no one more than to Dr. Martin belongs the praise for the excellent showing made by the Chattanooga Area during the hard closing days of the Centenary Movement.

Methodism has produced no more loyal, heroic, and faithful minister of Jesus Christ.

He fought hard for his ideals and principles but never allowed himself to be controlled by enmity for those who differed with him. All of his dealings with men were Christian. His spirit was truly refined and cultured through his daily contact with his Lord.

Dr. Martin gave his all to his ministry and he said just a few hours before departing, "We have had a conference and have agreed that the time has come for a long rest."

This sweet and earnest minister left his wife and three sons and a group of loving friends on the night of May 30, 1924. We are sure that the gates of pearl were thrown wide open for him and that his Master delighted in greeting him with the promised words, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

The funeral service was conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Chattanooga by the pastor, Dr. H. E. Murkett, Bishop F. M. Bristol, Dr. J. M. Melear, Rev. M. P. Murphy, Rev. R. L. Stapleton, and Dr. Arlo A. Brown.

Interment was in Forest Hill Cemetery. The Committal Service was read by the Rev. Walter A. Smith.

MRS. J. T. WARE

Mrs. J. T. Ware died at her home in Bradley County, near Cleveland, Tennessee, October 10, 1924, after a lingering illness lasting many months. The deceased was a devoted Christian, and a loving wife and mother; she was a member of Julian Chapel M.E. Church at the time of her death. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn their loss. Brother Ware is a retired minister of Holston Conference, M.E. Church. Miss Ula gave up a position in Chattanooga and remained with her mother until the end came. Elmer, the only son of the deceased, resides in Akron, Ohio. Carry resides in Atlanta, Georgia. Mrs. C. B. Hamrick resides at Ludville, Georgia. Sister Ware was taken back to her old home for burial; the funeral services were conducted by the writer at the home, assisted by the Rev. W. A. Smith of First Methodist Church, Cleveland, Tennessee.

MRS. MOLLIE SEARIGHT HARMON

Mrs. Mollie Searight Harmon, daughter of Audrew and Amanda Searight, was born in Pennsylvania, July 22, 1863. She was converted and joined the Presbyterian Church when she was a young girl. She was married to the Rev. J. C. Harmon, May 4, 1910. She passed to her heavenly reward October 12, 1924.

Mrs. Harmon was an ideal minister's wife, active in all of the work of the Church, teaching in the Sunday School, superintending the Junior League work, active in Women's Missionary Societies and Ladies' Aid.

She was a good wife and very tenderly nursed her husband during his last illness. She was a good mother, although she had no children of her own. She was a real mother to the motherless children of Brother Harmon.

Mrs. Harmon was the last of her family to pass away. She leaves five step-children and a host of friends to follow after her. Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church, Newport, Tennessee. The services were conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Cicero Dobbs, assisted by the local pastors of the city, and was laid to rest beside her husband in Union Cemetery, Newport, Tennessee.

Reports

BRISTOL DISTRICT

J. F. REED, Superintendent.

To travel the Bristol District, three things are essential: Money, strength, and patience, it being a territory 283 miles long by 139 miles wide. To reach 116 regular quarterly conferences and all of the meetings a District Superintendent must necessarily attend, about one-third of the time is taken up in traveling. It is not a question of likes or dislikes as to the mode of traveling: this is a very large District and it is the question of getting there on time.

We began the year on the District with pastors on all charges, but during the first six months of the year it became necessary to make changes in the following appointments: A. A. King resigned as pastor from the Wise Charge and C. E. Bevens was appointed to take his place; F. B. Slusher took the place of C. K. Chilcott, who resigned as pastor from the LaFayette Charge the first of February. For the reason of ill health, Monroe Ball had to give up the Riner Charge in the early spring and C. E. Trentham was taken from West Bristol and placed in charge of the work. J. Curtis Mauldin, a student of Athens, served West Bristol during his vacation. W. F. Barber, a student of Murphy College, served the Clinch Valley Charge during the summer. The above men were supply pastors, but they rendered faithful service, which is an evidence that local preachers have not lost their interest in the building of the church. C. W. Hancock gave up the Radford Charge in March, and by the consent of Bishop Bristol, J. M. Gambill, a member of the Blue Ridge Conference was placed in charge of this work the first of April. Brother Gambill has succeeded in building a parsonage which has an appraised value of $5,500.

Morgan's Memorial Church at Rose Hill was dedicated September the twenty first by Doctor J. M. Melear, editor of the "Methodist Advocate-Journal"; this is the second best church building in the District. C. L. Poulston, the pastor, not only inspired other folks to work, but with his own hands helped to build this fine church, which cost, counting the lot, $15,000. The church could not be duplicated for less than $20,000 if built by contract, due to the fact that much of the labor was volunteered.

Baker's Ridge Church on the Russell Charge, was dedicated by the District Superintendent on October 12. This church cost $2,000. The Sunday School annex, which was built last year, to the Christiansburg Church, was dedicated in July by the pastor, N. A. Conner, who raised on the day of dedication all of the indebtedness of both church and parsonage property.

The following churches should be ready for dedication by the middle of next year: Pine View, on the Radford Charge; Reed's Chapel, on the Fries Charge;

Helton's Chapel and Cabin Creek Church, on the Konnarock Charge. A new church is being planned at Austinville, on the Wytheville Charge, and one at Hilton, on the Hilton Charge. The Lydia Church, on the Gate City Charge should be completed next year, and when completed, this will be one of our best rural churches.

Just as soon as plans are completed, work will be started on the Roanoke Church, which is to be built in two units. We hope the first unit will be completed by the next Conference.

The church at Pennington Gap burned in the early spring, causing a total loss of about $10,000. It will take around $14,000 to rebuild this church, with something like $6,000 already subscribed. The congregation hopes to accomplish this task next year.

Owing to the cut in wages in the coal fields and other industrial centers, raising money for benevolent causes has been one of our greatest problems. However, we have had an increase in salaries of $4,000 over last year, making a total of about $10,000 for the last two years. The salaries may not all be paid in full, yet I think the reports will show a substantial increase.

Some of the charges have doubled their giving for World Service and Conference Benevolence, while others were unable to raise as much money as they reported at the last Conference. The grand total report for the District should be encouraging when we take into consideration that this is primarily a mission field.

Nine thousand, six hundred, and fifty-one dollars has been raised and paid on old indebtedness, and improvements on church and parsonage property.

We have given some attention in the Quarterly Conferences to Religious Education, which we think has already resulted in several of our young people entering some one of our schools.

The pastors have sold 666 World Service Books and several of the pastors have had Mission Study Classes, using the Blue Book as a text book.

Our District Conference was held in June at Salem, Virginia. The following visitors were present and rendered valuable service: Dr. E. A. Bishop, president of Murphy College, Professor Kilburn, of the Athens School, and Bishop Thirkield, who preached the closing sermon and conducted a consecration service which was a great inspiration to the Conference.

The Sunday School reports will just about compare with that of last year. We have several Epworth Leagues in the District which are doing good work.

Revivals have been held on every charge in the District, most of them conducted by the pastors. J. D. Harris, a supernumerary member of this Conference, did efficient work in revivals, at Bristols, Radford, and Salem. We have had as a result of these meetings, 1071 additions to the Church.

The Bristol District is practically a mission field, but not without opportunities. A more loyal people cannot be found anywhere, than we have in this great Virginia field.

This has been a year of real work on the part of the pastors. They deserve the credit for the victories that have been won for God and the Church.

As to my own work, I have worked and traveled early and late, and have held all of the Quarterly Conferences but one. I have tried to do my work with the future in view. I am in good health and happy. What more could I ask.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT

M. P. MURPHY, Superintendent

We began the Conference year on the Chattanooga District with every charge supplied with a pastor. At the end of the first quarter, J. H. Scissom, a supply pastor on the Tracy City Circuit, gave up the work and the charge was without a pastor to the end of the year. L. H. Howell, pastor at Ridgedale was transferred to the St. Johns' River Conference by Bishop Bristol about the middle of the Conference year, and T. H. Roach, a student in the University, was put in charge of and served the church the balance the year. Later, W. H. Coffee, pastor at Avondale, felt it necessary to give up the charge, and Jesse Price, a student, served as supply the rest of the year. R. C. Weisner, a student pastor on the McDonald Circuit, gave up the work in May and Paul Creighton, another student, took charge and finished up the year's work. J. B. Cobble, who supplied several mountain points as assistant to the pastor of the Patten Community Center, died June 6th, leaving these points without the care of a pastor the rest of the year. Brother Cobble had served as supply pastor in the Holston Conference for about fourteen years and had rendered very faithful service to the church. By action of our recent General Conference, Copperhill was transferred back to the Holston from the Georgia Conference and geographically falls to the Chattanooga District. I visited the charge recently and held the fourth quarterly conference. Brother C. F. Lucas, the pastor, will report to this Conference.

Our preachers and people of Chattanooga and of the entire District deplore the death of B. M. Martin, our faithful and efficient Area secretary, which occurred May 30th. Dr. Martin's services to the Church, as we are all aware, were untiring and sacrificial, and his going from us will be felt in Holston Conference for years to come. By arrangement with the office at Chicago, effected by Bishop Thirkield, LeRoy Martin, Dr. Martin's son, was put in charge of the Area Office at Chattanooga and finished up the work which had been carried on so faithfully by his father.

Mrs. H. E. Murkett, wife of our pastor at First Church, was in the hospital for several weeks as a result of a very serious operation, from which she seems to have fully recovered. Aside from these, there has been no serious illness in the families of our preachers.

In spite of the fact that we made large gains along financial lines last year, and the further fact that the mines in our coal fields have been shut down for a greater part of this year, and our farmers are still feeling the burden of high taxes on their property, and low prices for their products as compared with prices of goods which they buy, we are able to report gains on several financial items over that of last year. The following charges raised their pastor's salaries over the salaries of last year: Athens, Alton Park, Highland Park, Cleveland, Manker Memorial, St. Marks, Etowah Circuit, Englewood and Tellico Plains, Fairmount, Burk's, and Fairview. As a result, the District has paid about $3,000 more for pastoral support this year than last. We are expecting the reports on Conference Claimants and Episcopal Fund to show favorably with those of last year. Last year was the banner year for our benevolent collections. Twenty thousand dollars was paid on Centenary and Apportioned Benevolences and a total of $25,000 on Disciplinary Benevolences. We have urged our pastors and people to bring the collections up to that of last year. Some charges have made gains, while others have fallen below the collections of last year. Considering the condition following the Centenary period and the transition to the World Service program our reports will show up favorably, although we will not reach the high figure of last year. About 800 World Service volumes have been placed in the homes of our people, and the volume has been used as a text book in several churches.

Our building program is getting started. We have paid about $9,000 on old indebtedness and have spent $64,000 on building and improvement of church property.

A new church for Manker Memorial is now being built at a cost of $80,000 when completed. The walls are being erected, work on the front section of the church, including the main auditorium, will be pushed to completion for the immediate use of the congregation. The back section will be finished later. This church is a memorial to the late John J. Manker, for many years an honored member of this Conference, and this enterprise is receiving the generous support of his daughter, Mrs. John A. Patten. This church is being built in one of the very best sections in East Chattanooga on a lot which cost $5,000, will be modern in every way and one of our very best churches, and will meet the needs of our people in East Chattanooga for years to come. Pastor Stringham and his people deserve much praise for the heroic efforts they are putting forth to bring the work to completion. Through the leadership of Pastor Smith, and his official board, the Cleveland congregation has purchased a property adjoining the church, at a cost of $7,500, which has been converted into a Sunday School annex. This building affords added facilities for the various activities of the church. It has enabled the church to organize the departmental work of the Sunday School and to adopt the graded system of instruction. The church there has been re-decorated, at a cost of $3,500, making a total expenditure on church property for Cleveland of $11,000. The pastor and his loyal people are to be congratulated for this splendid achievement. Feeling the need of a better parsonage for Etowah, Brother Dye, the pastor, and his loyal official board set to work early in the year to secure a better house. A property thoroughly modern, in one of the very best locations in the community, was bought at a cost of $6,500. The old parsonage is being used at present for Sunday School purposes. A new church is badly needed in Etowah to take care of our growing activities, and the quarterly conference has voted to undertake the construction of a new church at the very earliest date possible. Our people at Red Bank the latter part of last year separated themselves from a federated arrangement with two other denominations in order to be free to put on the work peculiar to our denomination and to carry on their building program. The congregation worshipped for a time in the public school building. Later they built what is to be the future parsonage, and have fitted it up for church purposes until the new church can be built. The material used in the construction of this building is concrete blocks, and the cost, including out-houses, is about $4,300. The church in Red Bank owns three and one-half acres of land well worth $15,000. We must build a new church in this growing community or lose our opportunity.

A splendid piece of work has been done at Alton Park. Led by Brother Hampton, the pastor, and his official board, the people have done extensive repairs on both church and parsonage at a total cost of $5,000. They have also paid $1,000 on old indebtedness. The church is still in need of a heating plant, which must be installed this winter. When this is done, the property will be in splendid condition.

A new church has been built at Welch's Chapel, Mt. Airy Circuit, and is complete except for putting in the pews. When these are installed, the total cost will be about $3,500. Brother Daniels, the pastor, and his loyal people, have worked hard to accomplish this work. Repairs have been made on the Avondale Church costing $800; on the parsonage at North Athens costing about $800; also on the parsonage of Athens Circuit at a cost of $687. Other churches have been repaired as follows: Cedar Springs, Athens Circuit, Sardis, Jasper Circuit; East View, McDonald Circuit; Fairview, East Athens Circuit; and Daisy. Highland Park has paid $800 on old indebtedness; Athens, $2,000; and St. Marks, over $4,000.

Through the efforts of a committee appointed by the District conference, a District Parsonage has been bought, costing in round numbers about $7,000. Our first payment of $1,000 was generously made by Mrs. John A. Patten, making it possible to secure immediate possession of the property. The campaign for raising funds necessary to cover this purchase will be made at the beginning of the new Conference year.

Evangelistic efforts have been made in most of our churches, resulting in hundreds of conversions and reclamations and about seven hundred accessions to the church.

Our Sunday School work was never in better condition. In spite of lack of room and proper facilities in many of our schools, the enrollment is on the increase and better and more modern methods are being adopted. We have several teacher-training classes. Some schools are using the graded lessons; and two,

Cleveland and Highland Park, conducted Vacation Bible Schools last summer, with large attendance and splendid interest. Several Sunday School Institutes and Conferences have been held during the year with good results.

Most of our Epworth Leagues are doing good work. A more efficient leadership is being developed and the young life of the church is becoming more wide-awake and aggressive. A splendid Epworth League program was carried out at our District conference with a very large attendance of young people. Sixty of our young people attended the Epworth League Institute in Sevierville last summer.

Our Good Will Industry, of which B. M. Morrison is superintendent, is having a rapid development. The industry now occupies a two story brick building on Main Street, Chattanooga, and another house at the rear of this. There is also a branch store on Ninth Street. There have been, to October 1st, eighty-five workers employed in the industry, 4,800 contributors, 14,985 customers, and $3,465 has been paid to workers. Plans are being made to start a Mission to be run in connection with the main plant on Main Street, which will reach a class of people now untouched by the church. Superintendent Morrison and his helpers deserve much praise for the fine way in which they have handled the work and made the usefulness of the industry to the community assured.

The University of Chattanooga continues to grow in a way which is gratifying to all of its supporters, and promises ever increasing service to our churches. Last year, the Athens School reported a total enrollment of 420; and the College reported a total of 503. The latter included 356 in the regular student body and 147 extension students. In 1920-1921, this regular student body of the college numbered 155. At Athens the enrollment was divided as follows: regular student body, 297; practice school, 80; extension students, 43. A great addition to the plant at Athens has been made during the year in the erection of a $70,000 auditorium-gymnasium, which will be dedicated on October 28th. This building is the fulfillment of a promise made in the Endowment Campaign of 1922 and gives to the school an equipment scarcely equalled by any secondary school in the South. When the friends of Athens give to this school an adequate endowment, they will put on its feet for all time one of the most useful institutions in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

The college drew students last year from sixteen states, and in this number were those from every District in the Holston Conference, and from the following secondary schools of the denomination: Murphy Collegiate Institute; Washington Collegiate Institute; Mt. Zion Seminary; John H. Sneed Seminary; and McMoresville Collegiate Institute. Thus we see being realized the dream which Methodism's educational statesmen have had for this institution for the last forty years. The number of ministerial students is increasing and within the next two or three years it is expected that enough in the field of religion will be offered to enable the graduate of Chattanooga to complete his seminary course in two years."

As to personal labors, I will say, in closing, that I have regularly visited the churches in every part of the District, holding meetings and Conferences of various kinds. I have preached at 156 services, held 122 quarterly conferences, attended fifty-odd other conferences and committee meetings, administered the Communion in all our churches except in a few city and town churches, have moved once, have sent out from my desk 2,080 letters in the interest of the work, have tried to teach our people to be loyal to every cause of the Church and to promote in every way the interests of the Kingdom of God.

I am grateful to all the pastors and their loyal people for their generous support and hearty co-operation in all the efforts I have made to carry forward the work.

HARRIMAN DISTRICT

H. M. HAWK, Superintendent

The Harriman District of the Methodist Episcopal Church (Holston Conference) is bounded on the north by the Kentucky and Tennessee state line; on the east by a line extending almost parallel to the Southern Railroad and about nine miles north of that road to the Hiwassee river, on the south by the Hiwassee river, and a line extending from the mouth of that river across the mountain to Lewis's Chapel on the brow of the mountain near Dunlap, Tennessee; and on the west by a line extending along the top of the Cumberland Mountain to Kentucky. Included in this District is a vast rural section of the Holston Territory, in fact we do not have a single city in this District, and one of the advantages of the other Districts over this is, that in every one of them there is located a growing city with a settled population and constant employment, while in many places we are strong today but weak tomorrow because the work has been shut down and the men must seek employment elsewhere. This year we have been hit hard by the shutting down of the coal mines at Newcomb, Oliver Springs, Vine Grove, and Graysville, and only half time for work at other places. However, in spite of these difficulties, we face the future with hope. We have a few growing towns, such as the one in which we are meeting, which, a few years ago, was a mining village but today is one of the leading towns of East Tennessee, with a cultured and refined citizenship and a generous, Christian people. Practically the whole District is in a period of transition. The woodman's axe is becoming a thing of the past and the miner's pick is being laid away as a souvenir. These mountains around Jellico are hollow, and the people are changing from lumbering and mining to other pursuits, such as commerce, manufacture, and agriculture.

In this transition, there is a trend toward a more permanent settlement, one of the aids to financial, moral, and spiritual development. Being forced away from the forest and the mine, many of the people are giving their attention to the growing of fruits and vegetables in the form of strawberries, peaches, apples, cabbages, and potatoes and are finding that land once thought to be worthless for farming will produce, in these crops, from one to three hundred dollars per acre. We are just recognizing these opportunities. Only a few people have tried out these crops, but it appears now that in the not distant future this will solve our financial difficulties, and in place of the District Superintendent having to say to our good friends, "We cannot get along without your help," we hope to be able to say, "Blessings upon your head, thy pound hath gained ten pounds"; for we hope to return to the Church tenfold more than we receive.

Twenty-eight men were appointed to the charges of the District but early in the year Rev. H. G. Osborne, pastor of the Maynardville charge, who had been well received, and was delighted with the charge, was called from this life of service to his reward in the Church Triumphant. We wonder why death came to him when we needed him so much, but we know God's way is best, and we commend his wife and daughters to a loving Father's care, and, with them, bow in submission to His Divine Will.

About the end of the first quarter, the Rev. J. W. L. Sandusky was secured for the vacant charge and, though laboring under some disadvantage by his late start, he has remained through the year.

Rev. E. M. Boyd was seriously ill during the month of June but with the exception of a few Sundays was able to preach.

The men, with few exceptions, have worked hard and are worthy of commendation. They have preached the Gospel to both rich and poor, prayed with the sick and the dying, carried sunshine into sad hearts, and like the Master, they have "gone about doing good."

Their reports show—

Professions of faith	930
Accessions to the Church	640
Paid on Buildings and Improvements	$6906
Paid on Indebtedness	$8913

In addition to this we have paid on the District Parsonage debt and for improvements on the District Parsonage, $550, which makes a total paid on indebtedness of $9,463.

Early in the year, we had a special meeting at Oakdale in the interest of "World Service." Dr. B. M. Martin, secretary of the Chattanooga Area presided.

Our District Conference convened at Oneida, where we were royally entertained by the church people of the town. This was the first District Conference to be held in Scott County, Tennessee. Dr. E. A. Bishop, president of Murphy Collegiate Institute, gave an interesting account of the work of that school and brought out so clearly the advantages of attending that institution that the people who heard said, "We want to send our boys and girls to Sevierville to Dr. Bishop's school."

Dr. Kilburn, of the Athens School, was present and presented the cause of that institution and delivered a strong address in the interest of Christian education.

A World Service meeting was also held at Clinton, Tennessee, during the second quarter, where Dr. Martin preached a splendid sermon. Helpful addresses were also delivered by Dr. Williams, pastor of Trinity Church, Knoxville, Tennessee, and Rev. W. H. Treuschel, assistant pastor of the First M.E. Church, of the same city, who occupied the places on the program which were filled at Oakdale by Dr. A. A. Brown, president of the University of Chattanooga, and Dr. Upperman, president of Baxter Seminary.

Our Sunday Schools have grown in interest and in many of them better work has been done than in any previous year. Some schools have introduced the graded lessons and in others "Cook's Literature" is being replaced by that of our own Church.

Some of the members of the Sunday School Board, Dr. Burt M. Smith, Dr. Henderson, and Dr. H. A. Reid visited the District and delivered fine addresses, which awakened new interest and resulted in better organization.

The Epworth League has not grown as it should, but we have a few live chapters doing excellent work among our young people. The "World Service Volume" was used as a text book for study and proved very helpful. We recommend this book to Leagues that have not studied it.

The people of the District are mainly of the historic Anglo-Saxon stock, descendants of noble sires, possessing the same love of liberty and loyalty to principle that their fathers possessed. Many of these people are cultured and refined while many are the proverbial "diamonds in the rough." The one class is represented by the boy who knocks lightly on the office door, stands at attention, cap in hand, and when the door is opened, addresses the manager, "Beg pardon, sir, but I am in search of work; do you need a boy in your employ?" If so, I shall be pleased to serve you. Will you give me a trial?"

The other class is represented by the boy who, without knocking, throws open the door, slouches in without removing his hat and blurts out, "You all don't know of nobody who don't want to hire nobody to do nothing don't you?" The manager sits in astonishment for he remembers that, twenty years ago, he came in at that door in the same manner, so he gives the boy a chance, and such boys generally make good.

A speaker from Kentucky, who had served as pastor, Conference Evangelist, president of a college, and editor of a newspaper, visited one of our schools, conducted chapel service, addressed the student body, visited the classes and said, "My, what intellect these Tennessee mountain children have. I have not found their equal anywhere."

It is for these we plead, for we believe that the hope of our nation is in Christian education and Christian education depends upon the Christian Church, and in this District it depends mainly on the Methodist Episcopal Church, for this Church has opportunity to occupy a large territory which is untouched by other denominations.

As to my own work, I have given my entire time, have preached two hundred and twenty sermons, conducted one hundred and nine Quarterly Meetings, and attended six special meetings.

The year has been full of joyful service and has brought me closer to the Master, Who said, "If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me."

JOHNSON CITY DISTRICT

W. L. OLIVER, Superintendent

One year ago, when the Bishop read my name as Superintendent of the Johnson City District, I felt I had been given the hardest task of my life; but, when my predecessor, the Rev. R. L. Stapleton, turned over to me a District with twenty-seven loyal, faithful ministers, ready to work, and willing to sacrifice, I started in feeling that I must succeed.

In January, the Rev. W. R. Byerly, appointed to the Newport Circuit, was with me at his second quarterly conference, and though he was sick, he said that he could not miss it, as he had not missed a quarterly conference in over forty years. However, that was his last one, for on February the twentieth he went home to his reward. The Rev. John Nunley, a local preacher, served the charge for three months, and then the Rev. H. H. Shults, also a local preacher, finished out the year on that circuit.

On February the eighth, the Rev. W. E. O. Robeson, on account of his afflictions, was compelled to resign his work at Elizabethton; and, in June, the services of the Rev. J. Warren Broyles were secured, and he has done good work in the months he has served. On September the twenty-sixth, he had to undergo an operation for appendicitis. He is rapidly recovering, but is not able to attend this Annual Conference.

On August the first, the Rev. P. R. Broyles resigned his work on the Bailey-ton and White Horn Charge in order to take up the work at Patten Community Center; and the Rev. Oren Marshall accepted the work and finished the year, bringing in good reports.

The Rev. N. K. Rowe finished his year's work with much difficulty, having been sick most of the time this year.

The Rev. S. G. Ketron had a severe attack of acute indigestion, and the Rev. W. K. Harris underwent a slight but painful operation; but both were soon able to resume their labors.

The spiritual condition of the District is very good. Many of the pastors, acting as their own evangelists, and exchanging work among themselves, have witnessed the salvation of many souls this year. The reports will show about one thousand conversions and about six hundred accessions as a result of the labors of these faithful ministers of God.

The work among our young people is not what it ought to be. My ambition is to see an Epworth League and a Junior League in every church on the District, but as yet that ambition is far from being realized. The Sunday School work is not what it should be, and yet many of the Schools are doing successful work. What we need is consecrated leadership among the young men and women, a leadership that would strive to get the schools out of a rut and onto a real active basis, and a thorough study of the Word of God.

Pastoral support, while still meager among us, has increased in the aggregate about nine hundred dollars over last year. We have urged all the charges to pay their pastors in full, and, while this will not be done in every instance, we hope the reports of the pastors will show that the District has done well on this line. The Conference Claimant and Episcopal Funds have also been well taken care of. The World Service quota will not be met in full, we are sorry to report; but we believe the reports will compare favorably with the reports of the Centenary for last year.

Three church buildings have been dedicated this year, one on the Roane Mountain Charge at Hunters, and two on the Rutledge Charge, at Joppa and at Cedar Grove. The pastors and people have worked heroically, and the Lord has abundantly blessed their efforts. The Johnson City church has purchased a lot adjoining their church building at a cost of $10,250, with the thought of erecting a business house, in which there will be an assembly room and rooms for Sunday School purposes.

A mission has been established at Johnson City this year. A lot has been purchased and money raised for a church building. The Normal Heights people are delighted with the project and the Johnson City people are happy in doing this work for the Master. Our church at Clinton's Chapel on the Mountain City Circuit was destroyed by fire on Easter Sunday. The people of this community have begun the erection of a beautiful building that will soon be ready for use.

The work on our Kingsport Church goes on. The building is now under cover, and a tower rising sixty feet above the roof gives the structure a most imposing appearance. The most marvelous thing of it all, is that not one penny of indebtedness is on the building up to this time. Two churches on the Kingsport Circuit have undergone repairs. The people on the Fall Branch Charge have begun the erection of a parsonage; and the people on the Greeneville Circuit have purchased a parsonage in Greeneville for their pastor. The Rogersville charge has purchased a lot upon which they hope to build a parsonage. The Newport church has installed a pipe organ. Minor improvements on many of the other churches have been made during the year that have added to the comfort of the congregations.

In regard to my own labors, I would say that I have been busy. I have traveled more than 5,500 miles, preached 199 times, held one hundred quarterly conferences, have given to the work all of my time, have prayed much, and have been happy. The pastors have helped in every way to make the work as easy as possible, have been kind and courteous, the people have received me kindly, and altogether it has been a happy year. For our successes we give the honor to the pastors and people, and all the glory to God.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT

J. W. BOLING, Superintendent

The Christian Church has not only suffered because of the disorders, confusions, and moral disintegrations produced by the war, she has accepted the task of becoming the Moses whose duty it is to lead the way out and re-construct the world according to the dominant ideal of Jesus Christ. Under these obligations, the pastors and laymen of the Knoxville District have faced the task in the spirit and with the courage of Jesus our Lord and holy example.

The reports of the pastors will show that approximately one hundred thousand dollars have been put into buildings and improvements in the District this year. Among these improvements is a new church building, with adequate community center provisions, erected at Townsend, Tennessee, at a cost of fifteen thousand dollars. A parsonage worth $4,000 has been purchased and is to be furnished for the coming pastor. These fine properties have been provided by the generosity of Col. W. B. Townsend. This will be one of the Memorials to Mrs. W. B. Townsend, who was called from her wonderful labor on earth to her reward in Heaven during this Conference year. Col. Townsend has also authorized the District Superintendent to announce that the Preachers' Aid Society of Holston Conference Methodist Episcopal Church has a bequest of fifteen thousand dollars incorporated in the execution of his will.

All of the responsibilities of the District Superintendent in regard to the interests of the World Service program have been diligently executed. The reports of the pastors will reveal remarkable achievements attained even in the face of adverse circumstances. Some of our churches have gone even beyond the gifts of last year. The District as a whole made an advance of $377 over last year.

Under the direction of the District Superintendent, a church has been organized at Burlington, in East Knoxville, with a membership of fifty (50). A Sunday School has been organized in connection with this church having an enrollment of sixty. We already have a prospective list of members which will bring the membership up to at least seventy-five within a few days.

Pronounced emphasis has been placed upon the spiritual life of our people calling themselves Methodists. With the conviction that, aside from the reality of God in the soul, the Church has lost her identity as such, and that she has also lost her only dynamic empowering her for the destruction of sin, We have stressed the demand for vital Godliness in the soul of man and in the heart of the church as the only hope of our lost race. Our pastors have been flaming heralds of this message and many of our people have responded to the challenge by bearing coals of fire to the holy altars of our churches. The results will be registered in the reports and from such facts as are in possession of the writer the number of those saved at our altars this year will aggregate beyond fifteen hundred souls.

Wonderful as is the work of rescuing the perishing adults, no less wonderful, and certainly no less important, has been the program of training and organizing the young life and the child life—preeminently the most valuable asset among our resources. Murphy Collegiate Institute, with the new dormitory for girls, a building worth $75,000, erected this year, stands at the center of our educational program. The Epworth League Institute met at Murphy Collegiate Institute this year with the greatest feature of its history. By a substantial majority vote, the Institute decided to make Murphy Collegiate Institute its permanent meeting place. Under the auspices of the Sunday School Board of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a very valuable institute was held in our Trinity Church in March, 1924. "The Lord will perfect that which concerneth us."

CHURCH LITERATURE

We are living in an age of books and printed pages of every kind. Church literature of every denomination is more in abundance today than ever before, and people of every nation are becoming more informed about the Kingdom and Church business because of the printed page.

Our own Methodist people may have, and should be given the chance to know their church, its program, practice, and teachings by using our own Sunday School literature, reading a number of the many great books, some of the Advocates, many of the helpful but inexpensive tracts and booklets published by our own great Book Concern. Every pastor should recognize that it is a part of his work to get as far as possible, his people to reading; for by reading they will come to know, and when they know, they will do more for the Master and His cause.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

The Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in its Eighty-first Session at Jellico, Tennessee, desires to express its appreciation of the constructive work of the Conference Program and the valuable services of all those who have contributed to the comfort and convenience of the members and friends of the Conference.

The members of the Conference feel that the Committee on Episcopacy was under the guidance of God when they selected Bishop Wilbur P. Thirkield to be the leader of the Chattanooga Area at this important period of its history.

His administration of this Conference, the program arranged and carried out, his spirit of brotherliness, his exaltation of our Lord, and the appeal his work has made to the public, have won for him an enduring place in both the hearts of the laymen and the ministers.

The brethren also register their gratitude for the new sense of value of the great old hymns of the Church which he has brought to them in his ministry at this Conference Session.

We assure him of our appreciation of the program he has in mind for the area and pledge him our unlimited co-operation. We also devoutly pray that God may preserve his health and strength to carry the work forward through the period of his administration.

We also recognize that in the episcopal appointment, we have received not only our great leader, Bishop Thirkield, but also the National President of our Woman's Home Missionary Society, Mrs. W. P. Thirkield. We open our hearts and our churches to her and assure her the same loyal support that we accord to our Bishop.

Our Conference officers have been painstaking, accurate, and sweet-spirited in the discharge of their duties.

The speakers on our program have been men of a high order. Their addresses have inspired and lifted us into the spiritual realm.

Our Book Concern has rendered a service of great value to the Conference that puts each member under great obligations for the splendid display of books to which they have directed our attention.

We thank our good friends, the public press, for their fair, impartial, and ample reports of our proceedings.

To the pastor, the official board, the members of the church, and the cheerful, efficient entertainment committee, and the citizens of Jellico, we owe a debt of gratitude which is far beyond our power to repay. They have received us with an unsurpassed hospitality, which has made us not only feel at home, but also that it has been a sincere joy to extend this gracious hospitality. Our fellowship has been rich in Christ Jesus. May Grace, Mercy, and Peace, abide with these splendid people in their homes and church throughout the years.

SPECIAL RESOLUTIONS

As good ministers of Jesus Christ, we are taught to love one another with a fervent love. This love manifests itself in many ways, but one way uncommon to some is by way of gratitude. We recognize the tremendous burden which rests upon the shoulders of those who are qualified to be on important Boards and Conference Committees. We further recognize the great need for a higher trained ministry in the Church of God, and to this end we pledge our utmost ability and service. In the light of the past and future, we offer the following resolution:

That we express our deep and sincere appreciation to the Board of Examiners and to its faithful and efficient chairman, Dr. J. M. Emert, who retires from this very important office at this Conference. Many of our best young pastors who are now holding important charges were instructed in the Course of Study under the past efficient administration.

We further express hearty satisfaction with the appointment of Dr. Emert as the representative of the Methodist Book Concern in our Holston Conference.

We further assure the present Board of Examiners, that we will do to the limit of our abilities, anything to further the religious educational movement of our great church.

Respectfully submitted,

Whereas, it is an open fact that the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church is openly propagating the policy proposing to discriminate against the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and in favor of the Board of Foreign Missions in the distribution of the funds belonging to the common treasury of these Boards;

Be It Resolved, That we instruct Rev. L. H. Ashe and Mr. R. C. Kennedy, our Area representatives in the World Service Commission, that, in the meeting of the Commission to be held in Chicago in November, 1924, they represent the Holston Annual Conference as being unqualified in its wishes that the long-established plan of an equal distribution on the basis of a fifty-fifty ratio between these two great Boards. This action is predicated upon the conviction that any other plan would visit pronounced peril upon the interests of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension. In case of adoption, the Secretary of this Conference is instructed to convey this resolution to our Area representatives on the World Service Commission.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY

Whereas, the Bible is an open book, the torch of liberty burns, and the march of humanity is forward: Therefore, any agency that seeks to bring this holy light to those who walk in darkness should be heartily and enthusiastically supported. The most outstanding agency concerned in the distribution of the Bible from a purely altruistic motive is the American Bible Society. Over one hundred and sixty thousand volumes of the Scriptures, in more than one hundred and fifty languages and dialects, have been issued by this organization. Therefore, your Committee unreservedly commends the American Bible Society to all our churches and pastors.

EDUCATION

The Methodist Episcopal Church is in the business of Christian Education. We are in that business to stay; and one of the reasons we are so desperately interested in it, is this: It pays.

It pays in material advancement. It pays in the intellectual vision and increased efficiency which it gives to our young people. But it pays its greatest dividends in moral and spiritual manhood and womanhood, which we need as the foundation for the Christian civilization we are seeking to build. Without it, the human race is doomed to failure. With it, there is no limit to the possibilities of our advancement.

Within the bounds of the Holston Conference territory, the Methodist Episcopal Church has two splendid schools. The University of Chattanooga, maintains a preparatory and normal department at Athens and a College of the highest rating in Chattanooga, last year ministered to a total of 923 students. The Murphy Collegiate Institute has also enjoyed a splendid development in its equipment and student body. They are doing a much needed and an unusual quality of work. They are entitled to the support of every member of our church, and of the public in general, in all this section of our great Southland.

We recognize the value of our schools every where, but in a special sense, we feel that we should give our best endeavor to make our own the best institutions of learning in the land. And we pledge to those in charge of the work our sympathy and full co-operation.

The Board of Education of our church has always been our friend. We realize our obligation to that great Board, and hereby assure those who carry the responsibility for the success of that work, that they have a sincere friend in the Holston Conference. Our hearts are with them, and our prayers and our money we gladly lay at their disposal, for the work of the Kingdom of Christ.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

The Christian Sabbath is the gift of God. That God ordained it, and commanded us to keep it holy is the best evidence that it is necessary to our spiritual development. The Lord's day is a Holy Day, and should always remain such. But we are face to face with conditions that will destroy it unless we can change those conditions. We all realize the fact that certain tendencies of our times are pointing toward changing our day of worship into a day of recreation only. Sunday athletics, Sunday joy riding, Sunday golf playing, and Sunday merchandising is a clear menace to the Sunday worship.

As a church there is but one position for us to take, and that is the position of opposition to all Sabbath desecration on the part of any and all those who engage in it. As ministers, we pledge our best endeavor to defend the day God has set apart for our moral and spiritual benefit and maintain it for the purpose for which God hallowed it.

TEMPERANCE

We rejoice in the progress of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the completion of the new building in Washington, D.C., costing $600,000, and in the victories won in legislation and civic liberty, and pledge our support to this great work.

We also rejoice that the two major political parties have endorsed the Eighteenth Amendment and nominated dry men for the Presidency.

We urge our people to vote only for those who are committed on Prohibition, and to use their influence for law enforcement.

We unhesitatingly condemn harmful amusements which are resulting in such a flood of immorality and urge the Church to provide wholesome recreation for the people.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

We, your committee on Sunday Schools, desire to make the following report: Believing as we do that the Sunday School is one of the most important departments of church activity for the evangelization, religious education, and spiritual education of our young people, hence we urge that great emphasis be placed upon the Sunday School in all of its various departments. We note with pleasure the progress which our Sunday Schools have made in the past and while we wish to express our thanks to the General Board, also to Dr. Harry A. Reid, and others for the part which they have played in this great work. We also urge the organization of our Sunday Schools according to the standards adopted by the General Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Respectfully submitted by your Committee,

W. A. GRAYBEAL

DEACONESS BOARD

We recognize the great value of the work of the Deaconess in the program of the Christian Church for the establishment of the Kingdom of God among men. The sacrifices made by the good women who have consecrated themselves to the service should make a profound impression both upon the Church and upon the general public. Without the efforts these servants of God are making, the work of the Kingdom would suffer, and the neglected people of our crowded centers of population would be deprived of a Christian touch that means much to them.

We heartily commend the Board of Deaconesses to the consideration of all of our people, and urge our ministers and churches to do all in their power to give this worthy cause the sympathy and support they deserve.

The above report is based on items which came after reports were entered and balanced. There is no place in the statistical tables for fractions so that it is impossible to make correct report in any other form. Besides, it would mean three erasures and changes for each pastoral charge, plus totals. There are 122 charges reported on Endowment, multiplied by three copies, one for General Minutes, one for Conference Minutes, one for the Treasurer, or 369 erasures multiplied by three copies, plus recapitulation entries, or a total of exactly 1,125 erasures and changes, not to mention spoiling the appearance of my reports. Only those familiar with our statistical report blanks know this. I give these figures to make it plain that late reports add many hours of work and confusion. Since I have not time to remake three sets of copies for five districts to accommodate late reports, it will cost the Conference at least eight dollars extra to print this report in its present form. Voluminous and detailed reports covering thousands of dollars should not reach the Conference Treasurer as late as Saturday of Conference week—the day he is expected to report in full and answer Disciplinary questions concerning collections.
